Foreword

TO MY CUSTOMERS NEW AND OLD

Dear Patrons:—

I would love to have a heart-to-heart talk with each and every one of you. Many of you have been growing dahlias for years and are experienced in floriculture. I have been in the business for over fifteen years, yet I will say that each season teaches something new, something better. Each year develops new ideas and methods that are of inestimable help to the dahlia grower. All these new ideas we add to our comprehensive set of directions, for the benefit of our customers.

In all the previous years that I have exhibited my flowers at the numerous state fairs and flower shows throughout the country, I have refrained from mentioning in my catalogue, the many cups, ribbons and other prizes which I have won in open competition against the best dahlia growers anywhere.

Now, at the earnest solicitation of friends, I feel I should publish this information as being of legitimate advertising value. So, on the inside front cover of my 1929 catalogue I will show in natural colors the Five Grand Championship Blue Ribbons, won in the last four successive years as First Prizes at the Colorado State Fair at Pueblo, Colorado. On the inside back cover I will display the Silver Cup won at the Colorado Springs Garden Club show of 1928, as First Prize over all classes and all competitors.

In addition to the above Grand Prizes, I have won over 100 Blue Ribbons in open competition which lack of space prevents showing in the catalogue.

If we have made the slightest mistake in your name or address; or if your name or address have been changed we will thank you to let us know at once so that we can correct same on our books at once.

Dahlias were first discovered in the Rocky Mountain region. For this reason I claim, without fear of contradiction, that dahlias grown here produce seed and tubers of greater vigor than those grown anywhere else in the world. Why not? This is their original habitat. The above statement is proven by the superior beauty, coloring and size of the blooms grown by many of my customers who say, "Colorado dahlia tubers and seeds are the only ones that produce a strong and extensive growth the first year, and do not have to be acclimated.

DAHLIA SEED.—We grow five acres of dahlias. We gather our seed from only our very finest varieties. Furthermore we select by hand only the best seed. That is, we save only the strong vigorous seed from the seed pod, and discard the light, chaffy, undeveloped seed. All our seed is hand-picked, hand threshed, and hand-sorted. Compare our prices for these seeds (about one cent each) with the three cents to five cents per seed up that other seedmen and dahlia growers charge. If you wish to grow a large field of dahlias the first season, and are not able to obtain a sufficient assortment of tubers. It would be advisable to purchase seed and set out the seedlings.

TERMS: Cash with small order. Large orders one-half cash, balance C. O. D. when received.
POSTAGE EXTRA: We prefer to ship either Express or Insured Parcels Post, C. O. D. on receipt of order. This way insures a better delivery.

This seed is put up in packages of 50c and $1.00 sizes.

ALUMINUM TAGS.—How many of you older growers have used paper or wooden tags to your sorrow? Invariably the names fade when wet. We now use aluminum tags with the names embossed, that last indefinitely. To avoid mistakes we bury the tags with our finest tubers. We can furnish these tags, copper wired, for 10 cents each or $1.00 per dozen. Beware of zinc tags, that corrode the first year.

MONOGRAPH ON DAHLIA CULTURE.—This Monograph is a condensed treatise on the entire culture of the dahlia, starting with and taking up in sequence all phases of dahlia culture. Beginning with the preparation of the soil, fertilization, laying out, staking, method of planting, irrigation. How to produce large showy blooms for exhibition purposes; when and how to harvest, best methods of storage, sprouting and division of the tubers, also the best time for planting same in your locality. It covers the entire subject, yet does not burden your mind with a MULTIPLICATION of words. It is a short concise digest. Price $1.00 per copy, or given free with each $5.00 order.

AN EASY METHOD OF ORDERING DAHLIAS

This year we are printing the pictures of the Seven Main Varieties in colors, on the back cover. So when you see and read the description of a dahlia marked show, decorative, peony, cactus, hybrid cactus, pompon, all that is necessary to give you an idea of how it looks is to turn to the cuts and look at that particular variety.

Every one can go into a garden of dahlias and choose from the blooms just that variety which attracts them. The next best way to choose what you like is from the pictures of the same. After choosing the variety which you like, the next thing to do is to choose the color; and not only the color but the shade of color so as to blend the colors to the best advantage when planting them. Many like to blend their own colors in their flower garden. For the benefit of those who do not wish to do this we have made up a number of collections of different varieties and colors which blend well and are suited to your pocketbook.

Finally I will say if you have a garden plot and are uncertain just how many dahlias you need to fill it then write and give us the measurements; viz., length and breadth and we will tell you to a plant how many it will require to just fill it.

Notice.—When ordering please give second and third choice as we may be sold out on certain varieties.

Truly yours for service,
MRS. C. W. IGO.

New Creations

The following are the new creations produced by
Mrs. C. W. Igo

- Arabelle Igo. Peony Beautiful shade of light red. Free bloomer, wonderful stem 1.00
- Adelle Knowles. A beautiful pink cactus, with center shaded lighter. One of my new varieties25
- Al Kaly (Decorative)—Igo production. Beautiful pure deep yellow, good stem, free bloomer. Grows 7 to 8 feet tall50
- Alice G. Peony. A lovely flower in both color and form. Color, clear lavender pink. Good stem, free bloomer50
- Aileen (Decorative).—A beautiful pink with a delicate pastel blend of white touches the petals. This is a medium-sized flower on good stems and is splendid to use as a cut flower for table decoration, as it is a good keeper50
- Billy Carleton Hall (Hybrid Cactus).—One of the most beautiful of my new varieties of dahlias. Being an exquisite shade of red with flowers extremely large and full. Good stiff stems holding blossoms well above the foliage. A profuse bloomer and fine for cut flowers and exhibition purposes 5.00
- Carleton Hall—A wonderfully rich velvety red decorative. A good, free bloomer on long stems bearing the flowers conspicuously erect. This is one of my own 1921 seedlings..... 1.00
- COLORADO. Decorative. Igo production. This is one of the most wonderful dahlias that I have ever produced for size, color, stem and for keeping qualities. Color is a beautiful henna shade of red. Thus the name Colorado 5.00
- Colorado Fawn. Dec. Flowers medium to large in size. Borne on good stems holding the flower well above the foliage. Color, from a fawn pink to bronze 1.00
- Colorado Gold (Hybrid Cactus).—An immense blossom of pure yellow with the petals so rich they resemble gold. These flowers are always large and deep and of perfect formation. The stiff stems are very erect and the bush is strong and vigorous 5.00
- Colorado King. Peony. A beautiful, large flower, both in form and coloring. The color, a rich velvety red on stems long and rigid. Good bloomer 1.00
- Colorado Sunset. Dec. This is a perfect flower of the decorative type. The color is a gorgeous combination of orange red and yellow. Flowers very large, have good stems and are free bloomers..... 3.00
- Crimson Beauty (Hybrid Cactus).—This dahlia is a tall grower with perfect stems. The blossoms are from 8 to 10 inches in diameter without disbudding. Color hard to describe. Deep crimson or rose pink50
- Dr. T. R. Knowles, P. (Very beautiful.) One of my very largest and most beautiful of my originations and one that has been a great success as a prize-winner. Rich velvety dark red shade. Owing to the great depth and fullness of the flower with its long graceful stems holding the huge blooms high above the foliage, it produces a very showy effect. This flower is also excellent for cutting purposes 5.00
- Doris Durr, Dec. This beautiful decorative dahlia causes a great deal of admiration. Being a very early and free bloomer and is good as a cut flower. Color is a lavender pink with each petal fluted resembling a calla lily. Held high on a sturdy stem 1.00
- Dean F. Thomas Holgate (Peony)—This is a splendid, large, dark velvety red dahlia, on perfectly stiff strong erect stems. The deep color of this dahlia does not fade in the hot sun. Its growth is all that one could desire for a perfect peony type. For exhibition purposes it is wonderful 7.50
- Frank Wadell, Dec. A beautiful shade of salmon bronze cast. The flowers are quite large with erect stems. It is not only an exhibition variety but an excellent cut flower 1.50
- Golden Arbor (Peony).—This is a beautiful and distinct shade of old gold. The flowers are carried well above the foliage on long stiff stems. A very free bloomer50
- Hazel Whitfield, Dec. A remarkable large decorative dahlia which is a beautiful white with each petal having a slight shaded vein. This lovely flower is held upon a high stem and is excellent for cutting purposes 1.00

Mrs. Igo's New Creations

Continued

- Jean Elizabeth, P. An exquisite clear pink dahlia of medium size. The straight stems hold the flowers erect. This dahlia is more satisfactory for cutting purposes than for exhibition50
- Judge F. P. Sadler (Peony).—This is a beautiful dahlia of orange red, shading into yellow. A wonderful upright grower with the flowers towering well above the foliage. This flower makes an excellent cut flower50
- J. C. Hale. Beautiful large red decorative. Good stem, free-bloomer, good keeper as cut flower $1.00
- Jr. Durr, P. A very enhancing deep rose pink peony dahlia. Wonderful as a cut flower because of its fine long stems and excellent keeping qualities 1.00
- Lady Lavender, D A beautiful, light lavender overlaid with a silver sheen. Immense bloom, long stems, good bloomer, and wonderful as a cut flower 3.00
- Lauralie, P. Very soft lavender of a peony type. The very delicacy of this flower enhances its beauty, being one of my freest bloomers and having excellent stems. It is splendid as a cut flower..... 1.00
- Lucky Knowels, P. A very dainty large peony flower of a delicate opal shade. This enhancing flower is nice to use as a cut flower in large bouquets. Its beauty and refinement being pronounced after the flower has been cut from the bush ... 1.00
- Lucky (Hybrid Cactus).—An exquisite dahlia. It has enchanting coloring of tomato, shading into red. It is hard to convey to you the loveliness of this flower. An excellent bloomer during the entire dahlia season. The flowers stand erect on stiff stems. It is good as a cut flower or for exhibition purposes 1.00
- Miss Emma Glazebrook (Peony).—Beautiful pink with deep rose shadings. The plant is very tall and the stems are erect with the charming blossoms held high above the bush. A most excellent variety for a cut flower, and for all purposes 1.00
- Margaret Fair, D. A beautiful, deep velvety red. A good long stem 3.00
- Mrs. Carleton Hall, Dec. An extremely large decorative dahlia, truly magnificent in an unusual shade of pinkish lavender, with lavender tints prevailing. The fine blossoms are held high on strong stems. Excellent for exhibition purposes 5.00
- Maurine (Peony).—This dainty pure white peony dahlia is as lovely and beautiful as the dear little girl for whom it was named. The extreme whiteness of the flowers which are held high on strong stems, makes it wonderful to use for decorative purposes. It has excellent keeping qualities50
- Mrs. S. D. Waugh, P. A large and beautiful Dahlia. Color, golden amber. Good stems, free bloomer50
- Rev. Scheafer, Hybrid Cactus. Color, one of the largest and most beautiful dark reds that I have ever seen. Has long, stiff stems and the blooms stand straight up and look you in the face. Wonderful as cut flowers. 1.50
- Shining Light, P. A yellow with slight amber shading hard to describe. The blossoms are held well above the foliage on a long graceful stem. A wonderful cut flower50
- Snow Bound (Hybrid Cactus).—A pure white dahlia shading in the center to a rich cream. The blossoms keep for days when cut and last indefinitely on the bush. The stems are perfect and the bushes are always covered so thickly with these attractive blossoms that it gives the impression from a distance of a beautiful white snow bank 1.00
- The Flapper—Combining the Hybrid Cactus and Peony types. Of a peculiar shade of pink with prettily curled petals. Eminently satisfactory as a cut flower. This is another of my 1921 seedlings here for the first time put on the market..... .50
- Wynne Wadell, Dec. (Georgous.) This decorative dahlia almost seems too exquisitely unusual and lovely to describe. The blending white center gradually shading into a clear pink lavender of this immense flower is very striking in its close resemblance to a large pond lily. By disbudding it produces an extremely long straight stems holding its head very erect. This has been one of my biggest prize winners.....10.00
